CALIFORNIA TORTILLA LETS KIDS EAT FREE

*East Coast Chain Celebrates Recent Washingtonian Magazine Readers' Choice Award on Tuesday, July 15th with Make*A*Wish Foundation*

ROCKVILLE, MD – Popular East Coast quick-casual Cal-Mex chain California Tortilla will host a Kids-Eat-Free Day on Tuesday, July 15th celebrating its “Best Casual Restaurant For Kids” Readers’ Choice Poll win in July’s Washingtonian Magazine. For every Kids Meal given away during the celebration, California Tortilla will donate a Kids Meal to the Make*A*Wish Foundation of the Mid Atlantic.

“The ‘Best Casual Restaurant For Kids’ award from the readers of Washingtonian Magazine is a tremendous honor and showcases our family-friendly atmosphere,” said California Tortilla President Bob Phillips. “We expect to see tons of kids at all of our stores on July 15th and we are excited to donate Kids Meals to the Make*A*Wish Foundation of The Mid Atlantic.”

The special event will take place at all 38 California Tortilla locations.

California Tortilla offers several fresh and tasty Cal-Mex options for guests ten years of age and younger. Kids can pick from taco beef or grilled chicken tacos, burritos, or quesadilla meals which all include a soft drink, chips and queso, and a brownie.

In addition to the Kids Friendly Award, California Tortilla also won the “Great Place for Vegetarian Food” award. Vegetarian options can be found all across the menu, while most every item can be made vegetarian-style.

Just what is California Tortilla? A quick-casual, Mexican restaurant with can’t-find-them-anywhere-else, award-winning, critically-acclaimed, outrageously-popular burritos, bursting quesadillas, fabulous salads, the freshest ingredients, spunky cashiers and so much more.
